

INDEX.

- ABYSSINIA, vicariate of, 200.
 Abyssinian rite, by whom followed, 419.
 Aden, the importance of, 462.
 Æschylus, unacquainted with the Odyssey, 171.
 Afghanistan, extent of, 95; former names of, ib.; an elevated block, ib.; none of its rivers flow to the sea, 96; its mountains, 96; has great variety of climate, 99; its metals, 100; its salt mines, 101; its turquoise mines, ib.; vegetable productions, 102; its fauna, ib.; its rural population, ib.; its roads, 103; probable war routes in, 111; the Premier's reasons for war with, 224.
 Afghans, their respect for burial-grounds, 103; various races and languages of, 106; religion of, 107; their Moollahs or clergy, 108; condition of their women, 109; their truthfulness, 110.
 Africa, magnitude of, 182; prospects of the evangelization of, 188; obstacles thereto, ib.; how they are to be removed, 189; scientific societies in connection with, 194; Protestant missions in, 195, note; Catholic work in, 197; present ecclesiastical divisions of, 200; missionary societies for, 201; aid we may give them, 205; explorations in South Central, 233; nineteen expeditions now in, 513.
 African, origin of races, 184; causes of their degradation, 187; how superior to Americans and Australians, 188; easily evangelized, 205; qualifications of a missionary among, 206.
 Agapæ, a means of charity to the poor, 29; described, 34.
 Agar-Ellis case, legal bearings of, 208; important points decided by, 215; note to the article on, 504.
 Agnostic, portrait of an, 263; the end of man, 264, note; motives of moral acts, 265.
 Agnosticism means disappearance of morality, 263; how differs from Atheism, ib.; preaches benevolence, 264; leads to immorality and dullness, 269.
 Akkas, description of the, 186.
 Alcohol, action and uses of, 447; sole stimulant action of, 448; is an anæsthetic or narcotic, ib. 451; action of, on nervous system, 449; lowers animal heat, 450; not a "stimulant," 451; checks restless brain-activity, ib.; lessens tissue changes, 452; use of, at different periods of life, 453.
 Algeria, archdiocese of, 201.
 Ali Musjid described, 112.
 Amazon, Capt. Selfridge's survey on, 234.
 Arctic expeditions, 230, 516; chiefly by Swedes, 231.
 Argonautic legends are pre-Homeric, 170, 173, 182.

- Argonauts, voyage of the, 164; origin of tale, ib.; solar interpretation of it not strained, 165; the story in Apollonius Rhodius, 169.
- Armenian rite, by whom followed, 419.
- Asceticism and pathology, 520.
- Augustin, St., "Confessions" of, noticed, 542.
- BAMIAN, description of, 105.
- Bede (Ven.), "Historie lib. III. IV.," noticed, 547.
- Benedict XIV., and Eastern rites, 421.
- Bengal, presidency of, 464, 466.
- Benin, vicariate of, 201.
- Berlin, Treaty of, and the Oriental Christians, 397, 403, 406; difficulties in the way of its execution, 408; its stipulations, 410.
- "Bible Atlas" and "Countries of the Bible," noticed, 258.
- Bishop, administration of, for poor, 30; rights of, in education question, 445.
- Blunt (Lady Anne), Bedouin Tribes of the Euphrates, noticed, 517.
- Bombay, presidency of, 464; town of, described, 468; railways of, ib.
- Bonaventure (St.), his "Summa de virtutibus," 524.
- Bougaud (Abbé), his book on Church of France, 49; analysis of its contents, 50.
- Bosnia and Herzegovina, insurrection in, 405; Catholics took no part in, ib., note.
- Bower (W. H.), on Paris Exhibition, 119.
- Brassey (Mrs.), A Voyage in the "Sunbeam," noticed, 259.
- Bridgett (Father), on Bristol Pulpit in Days of Henry VIII., 73.
- Burial of dead in early Church, 39; contrast of Christians and Pagans, ib.
- Burmah, British, districts of, 466.
- Burnaby (Capt.), On Horseback through Asia Minor, noticed, 519.
- CALCUTTA, 471, 473.
- Cape, vicariates of the, 201.
- Captives, redemption of, in early Church, 37, note, 44, note.
- Catholics and school boards, 426; and Government aid, ib.
- Catholicism, and culture, 3; does not encourage knowledge for its own sake, ib.; articles on, by Mr. Mallock, 261; and Theistic difficulties, 274; reasonableness of, 275; alone can "develop," 277.
- Causation and free-will, 306; not "phenomenal sequence," 308; idea of, simple, ib.; of the phenomenists, better named "prevenance," 309.
- Cause, different use of, 307; "blind," what, 313; "originative," how many-fold, 316.
- "Certitude," meaning of the "principle of," 310.
- Chaldean rite, 419.
- Cham, sons of, 184; originally in the vanguard of civilization, 187.
- Champagny (Franz de), Charité Chrétienne dans les Premiers Siècles, 26.
- Chastel (E.), Études sur l'influence de la Charité, 26.
- China, like pagan Rome of first centuries, 33.
- Coal-beds of European trees in Greenland, 231.
- Collect (The), in Early Church, for the poor, 29.
- College, St. Cuthbert's, Ushaw, results obtained by, 61.

- Comboni (Mgr.), in Nigritia, 202.
 Commerce and the Church in Africa, 189.
 Commentary, The Speaker's, noticed, 255.
 Conference of Anglican Bishops, noticed, 259.
 Congo, conversion of, 198; why and how it fell away, 199; Apostolic prefecture of, 201.
 Congregation of the Holy Ghost, 202.
 Consciousness, error of Mr. Spencer regarding, 372; involves mind, 385.
 Coptic rite, 419.
 Culture, what, 4, 18; relation of, to revelation, 7; to theology, 9; "scientific method" does not help, 11; Catholic, impossible without theology, 13; conditions of Catholic, 19; avoids small points, 21; demands study, 23.
 Cyclops, a sun-myth, 168.
- DANIEL, NOTES ON THE BOOK OF, noticed, 551.
 Darien, Canal through the Isthmus, 235.
 Deacon, relieved the poor in early Church, 31.
 Deaconesses, offices of, 32.
 Debtors, redemption of, 37.
 Determinism, appeals to experience, 283; but is contradicted by it, 284.
 Devas (C. S.), on Relief of Poor in Early Church, 26.
 Di Bruno (Rev. J. Faa), Catholic Belief, noticed, 258.
 "Divine Right," opposed by Catholic theologians, 487.
 Doll, probable origin of the word, 89, note.
 Dooletaly, salt mines at, 101.
 Dublin, social state of, in Moore's youth, 328; condition of the University of, 330; dislike of University of, for Moore, 332; and for Catholics, 333.
 Duplication, discipline of the Church regarding, 248.
- EASTERN CHRISTIANS, 397; and Congress of Paris, 404; likely to benefit by Treaty of Berlin, 407; in different degrees, 411; different communions of, in Turkey, 413.
 Eastern Church, its glorious past, 413; interest of the Popes in, 414; special interest of Pius IX. in, 415.
 Edgworth (Roger), his sermons, 73; his life, 74; his style, 80; specimen of his moralizing, 82; on the spread of the new heresy, 83; on the preachers of the Reformation, 85; on use of images, 88; on position of celebrant at Communion-table, 89; his will, 90.
 Education, Catholic, and Act of 1871, 429; Mr. Ryley on, ib.; State has no right to insist on "secular," 438; "dangerous tendencies" in Government plans, 439.
 Egypt, vicariate of, 200.
 Eighteenth century, 477; difficulty of estimating, ib.; belongs to Renaissance epoch, 481; Europe at beginning of, 485.
 El Juf, project of refilling dried ocean-bed at, 192.
 Emmet (Thos. A. and Robert), sketch of, 335; references to them in the "Melodies," 337.
 Encyclical of Leo XIII., opportuneness of, 238; text of, 506.

- England, work of Church in, 49; five wants of Church in, 55.
 Eskimo race widely diffused, 230.
 Exhibition, Paris, its lessons, 119; a rapid run through, 121; English Fine Art in, 125; education and art of design in, 127; printing and publishing in, 129; English manufactures in, ib.; ceramics in, 133; iron and steel in, 134; machinery in, 136; the awards as a test of English deserving, 137; not a financial success, 140.
- FAITH THE MOTIVE OF ALL ACTION, 480.
 Farrar (F. W.), Sainly Workers, noticed, 535.
 Ferry (M. Jules), drift of his Education measure (1878), 502.
 Förg (Dr.), 248.
 Foundlings, care of, by early Church, 35.
 France, Church and School in, 493; chances of a Republic in, ib.; narrative of recent events in, 494; the new Cabinet Ministers, 496; lessons from recent debates, 497; education from 1865 to 1876, 501.
 Francis (St.), Month of, noticed, 258.
 Free-Will, 281; obstacles to foreseeing the course of, 292; rare exercise of, no disproof, 300; how developed from indeterminism, 306; the proximate cause of certain phenomena, 315; a definition of, 317; school definitions of, 318; Jesuit view of, ib.
- GALLAS, vicariate of, 201.
 "Gallican liberties" real slavery, 488.
 Gambetta (M.), after January 5th, 494.
 Gasquet (J. R.), on Alcohol, 447.
 Gautier (L.), Les Epopées Françaises, noticed, 539.
 Geary (Grattan), Through Asiatic Turkey, noticed, 518.
 Germanie, Monumenta Historica, noticed, 542.
 Ghuzni, described, 104.
 "Glacial" epoch, tradition of, in Apollonius Rhodius, 174.
 God, implied by morality, 267; proof of, unaffected by science, 271; ontological proof of, 273.
 Görres-Gesellschaft, report of, 239, 247.
 Gowing (G. J.), Horæ Sacre, noticed, 540.
 Greek rite, what, 418.
 Guéranger (Dom), L'Année Liturgique, noticed, 536.
 Guinea, vicariate of, 201.
 Guinea (New), Sig. D'Albertis in, 515.
- HAGENBACH (K. R.), History of Reformation, noticed, 552.
 Hell, nature of fire of, 247, 523.
 Herat, description of, 105.
 History, is there a philosophy of? 478; its importance, 480.
 Hospitality in Early Church, 38; an obstacle to marriage with a heathen, 39; among the Afghans, 109.
- INDETERMINISM, and Dr. Bain, 283; proved from experience, 285; proved

- from self-restraint, 288; and "balance-of-pleasure" theory, 291; not maintained solely for virtue's sake, 295; not a theological assumption, 298; leads to free-will, 306.
- India, Map of, 454; our object in, ib.; English ignorance about, 456; books on, recommended, 461; great defects of present maps of, 463; the presidencies of, 464; native states of, 465.
- Introduction to a Devout Life, noticed, 257.
- Intuitionist classification of phenomena, 311.
- Irish Catholics, position of, at time of Moore's birth, 326; music (old) and the "Melodies," 349.
- "Irishmen, the United," in Trinity College, 331.
- Italy, possibility of a Republic in, 240; Catholics and the Elections in, 527; Conservative programme in, 531.
- JAMES II., and absolutism, 491; opposed by Innocent XI., ib.
- Jason, meets god Triton, 176; character of, by Pindar, 180; transformed in the "Medea," 181.
- KABUL, description of, 103.
- Kandahar, 104; a route to Kabul, 112.
- Kempe (J. E.), Classic Preachers of English Church, noticed, 511.
- Khyber mountains, as Indian frontier, 226.
- Kurrum valley, 118.
- LALLA-BEG, village of, 114.
- Lamy (T. J.), on Christians of the East, 397.
- "Law," vague use of the word, 479.
- Lawrence (St.), and the poor, 34.
- Lebanon, Jesuits in, 416.
- Legends, pre-Homeric, 164.
- Libermann (Ven. F.), 202.
- Lilly (W. S.), on Eighteenth Century, 447.
- Locke (John), Heine's criticism of, 484.
- Louis XIV.'s monarchy, 485; use of "Divine right," 487; foreign policy, 488; how far "great," 490.
- MACKENZIE (D.), his Flooding of the Sahara, 182; project for increasing trade with the Soudan, 191.
- Madagascar, prefecture of, 201.
- Madras presidency, 404, 406; city, 469.
- Mahomet, his hostility to Christians, 398; his warlike exploits, 400; his protection of Jacobites of Nagran, ib.; his Caliphs and the Christians, 401.
- Mahomet II., his conduct to Christians, 402.
- Malgaches, prefecture, 201.
- Mallock (Mr.), not a Catholic, 262, 279; uses incorrectly "faith," "super-natural," 269; and "proof," 272.
- Manning (Cardinal), on Work and Wants of Church in England, 49.
- Maps used before Herodotus, 178; of Africa, Afghanistan, and Zululand, 519.

- Materialism, re-born at the Renaissance, 481.
 Meyrick (Rev. T.), Early Popes, noticed, 252.
 Midian, Capt. Burton's researches in, 232.
 Miracles impossible to the Phenomenist, 311.
 Mivart (Professor St. George), on Herbert Spencer's Psychology, 141, 368.
 Moore (Thomas), 323; his connection with the DUBLIN REVIEW, ib., note;
 his birth, 324-327; enters Dublin University, 330; slighted there, 332; goes to London, 339; merits of his "Anacreon," ib.; laxity of his "Juvenile Poems," ib.; duel with Jeffrey, 340; goes to Bermuda, ib.; goes to America, 341; writes the "Melodies," 342; classification of "Melodies," historical, 345; political, 346; legendary, 348; domestic, ib.; social, 349; his marriage, 350; his religion, ib.; charge of neglecting his children, 351;
 writes in Morning Chronicle and Times, 352; writes "Lalla Rookh," 353;
 his popularity, 355; his reception in Ireland, 357-362; his prose works, 358; he destroys Lord Byron's "Journal," 360; his "History of Ireland," 365; he should be judged by his contemporaries and his works, 367.
 Moral habits, relation of, to anti-impulsive efforts, 303.
 Morocco, prefecture of, 201.
 Morris (Rev. J. Brande), Eucharist on Calvary, noticed, 534.
 Mossul, Dominicans at, 416.
 Mother's claim on her child-in-law, 209.
 Motion, perception of, 151.
 Myths, tendency of, to reappear, 165.

 NATAL, vicariate of, 201.
 Niam-niam (The), or "great eaters," 185.
 Nigritia, Institute for Missions in, 202.
 Nigritian and Nilotic families, 185.
 Nordenskiöld (Prof.), Arctic explorations of, 231, 516.
 Northcote (Very Rev. Dr. J. S.), and Brownlow (Very Rev. W. R.), Roma
 Sotteranea, noticed, 549.

 O'CONNELL CENTENARY RECORD, noticed, 250.
 Odyssey and "Argonautics," 170; known to Euripides, 172; not to Æschylus, 171; nor to Sophocles, 173.
 Offertory in Early Church, 29.
 Ophir, locality of, 237.
 Orders, Religious, in the East, 416.
 Orphans, care of, in the Church, 35.
 Orpheus and Eurydice, a sun-myth, 168.
 Oudh, ex-king of, 473.

 PALEY (F. A.), on Pre-Homeric Legends, 164.
 Parents, authority of, in Religious Matters, 208.
 Paris Exhibition of 1878, 119.
 Parliament, Winter Session of 1878, 223.
 Pennsylvania (Bp. of), Sermon, noticed, 260.
 Perception, character of, 368; not sensation, 370; a mental state, 373.

- Periodicals, noticed, French, 236, 520; German, 246, 523; Italian, 240, 527.
 Phenomenal sequence, law of, 309.
 Philippi (F. A.), Commentary on St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans, noticed, 551.
 Pins IX., on Eastern Church, 413; his interest in it, 415; on Eastern Rites, 424; on Education, 431; his Freiburg Brief on Education, 436; his decision on Irish National Schools, 441.
 Poona described, 469.
 Poor-relief, in Early Church, 26; sources of, 29; by individuals, 41; by Pagans, 43; by Romans, was not for charity, 45; Pagan contrasted with Christian, 46; three varieties of, 48.
 Portuguese, zeal of first missionaries, 198; their present hostility, 200.
 Prejevalsky (Col. N.), From Kulja, noticed, 519.
 "Prevenance," a term for Phenomenist causation, 309.
 Prisoners, care of, in the Church, 36; of war, ransom of, 38.
 Psychical phenomena, cause of, 313.
 Pulpit, Bristol, in days of Henry VIII., 73.
 RATZINGER (G.), Geschichte der Kirchlichen Armenpflege, 26.
 Reasoning, nature of, in Spencer's system, 389; same disproved, 393.
 Relation of similarity, 375; of co-intension, 377; of co-extension, 378; of co-existence, 379; of connature, 380; of likeness, 381; of sequence, 383.
 Renaissance, character of the, 481; and mediæval philosophy, 482; and the Church, 483; typical kings: Louis XIV., 485; and James II., 491.
 Resistance, perception of, 157.
 Revolution of 1688, consequences of, 491.
 Rites, Eastern, 419; countenanced by Popes, 419; specially by Benedict XIV., 421; and Pius IX., 424.
 Robinson (P.), In my Indian Garden, noticed, 546.
 Roudaire's (Capt.), Rapport sur la Mission de Chotts, 182; scheme for the Sahara, 193.
 Ryley (Mr.), and School Board Schools, 430; reply to, 434.
 SABAK, New Colony of, 516.
 Sahara, Missionary work in, 203.
 Salford (Bishop of), Evangelization of Africa, 182.
 Salt mountains, in Afghanistan, 98; mines, 101, 192.
 Schismatic Churches in the East, 417.
 Schoebel (C.), L'Histoire des Rois Mages, noticed, 536.
 Schools, Middle Class, in England, 57.
 School Boards, and Catholics, 426; can Catholic Children attend their Schools? 431; three cases of Catholic Children, 439; a decision of Propaganda regarding, 442; can Catholics sit on? 443.
 Schoupe (F. X.), Course of Religious Instruction, noticed, 549.
 Schwab (Moïse), Le Talmud, noticed, 539.
 Schweinfürth (Dr.), The Heart of Africa, 182.
 Science, easily antagonistic to Revelation, 13; services of, to Church in Africa, 194; Notices, 230, 513.

- Self-restraint, a proof of Free-will, 288.
 Seminaries greater in England, 56.
 Senegal, prefecture of, 201.
 Senegambia, vicariate of, 201.
 Sermons, historical value of, 73.
 Sierra Leone, vicariate of, 201.
 Slaves, redemption of, 37; Moslem, in Africa, 197.
 Slave-trade in Africa, 195; England's share in, ib.; her repentance, 196; present extent of, ib.
 Socialism, Bill against German, 248.
 Solomon, M. Vigouroux on, 236.
 Soudan, The, 190; its large trade, 191; French and English rivalry for, 193, 514; explorations in, 234.
 Space, perception of, 141; an abstraction, 144.
 Spelman's "Sacrilege" in Germany, 249.
 Spencer's (Mr. Herbert), Psychology Examined, 141, 368.
 Steamers on the S. African Lakes, 234.
 Stevenson (Sir J.), and the music of the "Melodies," 349.
 Stone (Mrs.), Our Flag, noticed, 256.
 Sun, search for home of the rising, 164; symbolized by Golden Fleece, 165; objection to theory, 167.
 Sunday, French debate on observance of, 497.
 Symplegades, probably Icebergs, 174.
 Syriac rite, by whom followed, 419.
- TAUDENG, salt mines of, 192.
 Theology, study of advantageous, 16; its "method," 17; and current speech, 20; moral, a practical science, 446.
 Trinacria, origin of name, 177.
 Time, perception of, 148; an abstraction, 149.
 Tithes, not obligatory to time of Constantine, 30.
 Tripoli and Tunis, prefectures of, 200.
 Tyndall (Prof.), his portrait of an Agnostic, 263; and distinction between right and wrong, 269.
- ULYSSES, a sun-myth, 168.
 University, national, for Catholics, 58; reasons against, 62.
- VIGOUROUX (M.), La Bible et les Découvertes Modernes, noticed, 534.
 Vocations to Priesthood in France, 50; remedies for decrease of, 52.
 WADDINGTON (M.), Feebleness of his Government, 499.
 Ward (Dr. W. G.), Replies to Dr. Bain, 282, 289, 292, 295, 298, 300, 301.
 Wenham (Canon), School Manager, noticed, 253.
 Wiesene (Louis), Jeunesse d'Elizabeth d'Angleterre, noticed, 537.
 Wool, History of, in Belgium, 522.
- YENISEI RIVER, 232.
- ZANZIBAR, prefecture of, 201.

